Applications are now invited for the inaugural Australian Legal Education Awards (ALEA), established in 2021 by the Council of Australian Law Deans and the Legal Educations Associate Deans (LEAD) network as a prestigious national award scheme for legal educators. The 2022 ALEA scheme offers awards in five categories:

- Excellence in Teaching
- Excellence in Teaching (Early Career)
  - Excellence in Teaching (Sessional)
- Excellence in Teaching (Engagement)
- Excellence in Research Supervision

All award recipients in these categories will receive a prize of $1000 and a certificate.

Outstanding Lifetime Achievement Award

The ALEA scheme seeks to honour sustained contribution to legal education through the Excellence in Teaching – Outstanding Career Achievement Award. This prestigious award recognises sustained excellence in teaching and learning in legal education over a career spanning at least 25 years, nationally and/or internationally.

Eligibility and assessment criteria are set out in the information and nomination pack,
